Paul R. Brazil, Muller Brazil, LLP, Dresher, PA, for petitioner.

Jennifer L. Reynaud, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for respondent.

DECISION ON ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

On May 1, 2018, Kathy Macaluso ("petitioner") filed a petition in the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program.² Petitioner alleged that as a result of an influenza ("flu") vaccine administered to her on September 30, 2016, petitioner suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration. Petition at 1, 3 (ECF No. 1). On September 26, 2020, the parties filed a stipulation, which the undersigned adopted as her decision awarding compensation on the same day. (ECF No. 45).

On November 3, 2020, petitioner filed an application for attorneys' fees and costs. Motion for Attorney Fees and Costs (ECF No. 49). Petitioner requests compensation in the Specifically, Under Vaccine Rule 18(b), each party has 14 days within which to request redaction "of any information furnished by that party: (1) that is a trade secret or commercial or financial in substance and is privileged or confidential; or (2) that includes medical filed or similar files, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of privacy." Vaccine Rule 18(b). Otherwise the whole decision will be available to the public in its current form. Id.

² The National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program is set forth in Part 2 of the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755, codified as amended, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-1 to -34 (2012) ("Vaccine Act" or "the Act"). amount of $23,968.82, representing $15,590.10 in attorneys' fees and $8,378.72 in attorneys' costs. Fees App. at 2. Pursuant to General Order No. 9, petitioner states she has not incurred any costs related to the prosecution of their petition. Id. Respondent filed his response on February 4, 2021 indicating that he "is satisfied the statutory requirements for an award of attorneys' fees and costs are met in this case." Response at 2 (ECF No. 50). Petitioner did not file a reply thereafter. The matter is now ripe for disposition.

For the reasons discussed below, the undersigned GRANTS petitioner's motion and awards a total of $23,968.82.

I. Discussion

Under the Vaccine Act, the special master shall award reasonable attorneys' fees and costs for any petition that results in an award of compensation. 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e)(1). When compensation is not awarded, the special master "may" award reasonable attorneys' fees and costs "if the special master or court determines that the petition was brought in good faith and there was a reasonable basis for the claim for which the petition was brought." Id. at §15(e)(1). In this case, because petitioner was awarded compensation pursuant to a stipulation, she is entitled to a final award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

a. Reasonable Attorneys' Fees

The Federal Circuit has approved use of the lodestar approach to determine reasonable attorney's fees and costs under the Vaccine Act. Avera v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 515 F.3d 1343, 1349 (Fed. Cir. 2008). Using the lodestar approach, a court first determines "an initial estimate of a reasonable attorney's fee by 'multiplying the number of hours reasonably expended on the litigation times a reasonable hourly rate.'" Id. at 1347-58 (quoting Blum v. Stenson, 465 U.S. 886, 888 (1984)). Then, the court may make an upward or downward departure from the initial calculation of the fee award based on other specific findings. Id. at 1348.

Counsel must submit fee requests that include contemporaneous and specific billing records indicating the service performed, the number of hours expended on the service, and the name of the person performing the service. See Savin v. Sec'y of Health and Human Servs., 85 Fed. Cl. 313, 316-18 (2008). Counsel should not include in their fee requests hours that are "excessive, redundant, or otherwise unnecessary." Saxton v. Sec'y of Health and Human Servs., 3 F.3d 1517, 1521 (Fed. Cir. 1993) (quoting Hensley v. Eckerhart, 461 U.S. 424, 434 (1983)). It is "well within the special master's discretion to reduce the hours to a number that, in [her] experience and judgment, [is] reasonable for the work done." Id. at 1522. Furthermore, the special master may reduce a fee request sua sponte, apart from objections raised by respondent and without providing a petitioner notice and opportunity to respond. See Sabella v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 86 Fed. Cl. 201, 209 (2009).

A special master need not engage in a line-by-line analysis of a petitioner's fee application when reducing fees. Broekelschen v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 102 Fed. Cl.

719, 729 (2011). Special masters may rely on their experience with the Vaccine Program and its attorneys to determine the reasonable number of hours expended. Wasson v. Sec’y of Health and Human Servs., 24 Cl. Ct. 482, 484 (Fed. Cl. Nov. 19, 1991) rev’d on other grounds and aff’d in relevant part, 988 F. 2d 131 (Fed. Cir. 1993). Just as “[t]rial courts routinely use their prior experience to reduce hourly rates and the number of hours claimed in attorney fee requests ... [v]accine program special masters are also entitled to use their prior experience in reviewing fee application.” Saxton, 3 F. 3d at 1521.

i. Reasonable Hourly Rates

Petitioner requests the following hourly rates for the work of her counsel, Ms. Shealene Mancuso: $233.00 per hour for work performed in 2018, $250.00 per hour for work performed in 2019, and $275.00 per hour for work performed in 2020. These rates are consistent with what Ms. Mancuso has previously been awarded for her Vaccine Program work, and the undersigned finds them to be reasonable herein.

ii. Reasonable Hours Expended

The overall hours spent on this matter appear to be reasonable. The undersigned has reviewed the billing entries and finds that they adequately describe the work done on the case and the amount of time spent on that work. None of the entries appear objectionable, nor has respondent identified any entries as objectionable. Accordingly, petitioner is entitled to a final award of attorneys’ fees in the amount of $15,590.10.

b. Attorneys’ Costs

Petitioner requests a total of $8,378.72 in attorneys’ costs. This amount is comprised of acquiring medical records, postage, the Court’s filing fee, and work performed by petitioner’s medical expert, Dr. Naveed Natanzi. Fees App. at 15. Notably, petitioner requests an hourly rate of $475.00 for the work of Dr. Natanzi, an increase from what he has previously been awarded. See Deberry v. Sec’y of Health & Human Servs., No. 17415V, 2020 WL 1893528 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. Mar. 9, 2020) (awarding Dr. Natanzi $425.00 per hour); Massucci v. Sec’y of Health & Human Servs., No. 17-1345V, 2020 WL 5407840 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. Aug. 19, 2020) (same).

In support of Dr. Natanzi’s increased rate, petitioner contends that an increase would be “customary in the medical industry to keep up with insurance rates and other expenses” and that Dr. Natanzi’s “experience and expertise regarding SIRVA in particular objectively grew between 2018 and 2019.” Status Report at 1, ECF No. 53. Based on the justification provided by petitioner, the undersigned finds that an increase to Dr. Natanzi’s rate for work performed in 2019 and onward to be reasonable. Accordingly, the undersigned finds Dr. Natanzi’s hourly rate and hours billed to be reasonable for work in the instant case.

The remainder of the requested costs are typical of Vaccine Program litigation and are reasonable in the undersigned's experience, and petitioner has provided adequate documentation supporting them. Petitioner is therefore awarded the full amount of costs requested.

II. Conclusion

Based on all of the above, the undersigned finds that it is reasonable compensate petitioner and her counsel as follows:

Attorneys' Fees Requested	$15,590.10
(Total Reduction from Billing Hours)	-
Total Attorneys' Fees Awarded	$15,590.10
Attorneys' Costs Requested	$8,378.72
(Reduction of Costs)	-
Total Attorneys' Costs Awarded	$8,378.72
Total Attorneys' Fees and Costs Awarded	$23,968.82

Accordingly, the undersigned awards a lump sum in the amount of $23,968.82, representing attorneys' fees and costs, in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner and her counsel, Mr. Paul Brazil.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the Clerk of Court SHALL ENTER JUDGMENT in accordance with this decision.³
